

New Hampshire Wildlife Federation has partnered with Scott Rouleau our fellow board member and owner of New England Upland Shooting Preserve to start the fall season off with a BANG. Please join us for Fall is for the Birds event. This event has a limited number of spaces available and will fill up fast. The day includes a continental breakfast, High volume European style pheasant shoot, a buffet lunch, a clean-up hunt for the birds that are missed during the morning, a raffle and games. Fly fishing with barbless hooks in the trout pond will be available during the morning for non-shooters attending the event. You are encouraged to bring your bird dog for the afternoon clean up hunt.
